

Photosynthesis converts sunlight into chemical energy.

Mitochondria produce adenosine triphosphate for the cell.

DNA replication is semi conservative in its mechanism.

Enzymes lower the activation energy of a reaction.